

FPE Canada, ULC

FPE is looking to fill the following position in Stratford, Ontario:

NIGHT SHIFT PROCESSOR

Basic Scope/Purpose:

Process Development and Management based on input taken from Program Engineering defining part requirements

Essential Duties and Responsibilities:

May include, but are not limited to the following:

Establish processes to run

- Support change request and incorporate into the process
- Monitor impact of changes on processes
- Develop documentation about specific process changes
- Work with suppliers to improve materials

Evaluating process performance

- Day-to-day evaluation of process performance
- Application of Statistical Process Control (SPC)
- Analyzing scrap/defects to minimize costs
- Improving process performance on an ongoing basis

Equipment capability

- Evaluating equipment availability
- Maintainability of equipment

Continuous Improvement of Molding Process

- Improve process capabilities to obtain better window
- Incorporate automation into the Molding Process whenever possible
- Recommend tooling changes/redesign
- Monitor the entire Molding Process
- Work with Manufacturing, Purchasing, Shipping, and Receiving to optimize process performance

Desired Skills and Education:

- Three to five years related experience and/or training
- Understanding of manufacturing principles and practices
- Strong written and verbal communication skills
- Understanding of electronics, mechanics, and hydraulics
- Ability to define problems, collect data, and draw valid conclusions
- Ability to use Word, Excel, and other software packages

Florida Production Engineering, Inc. offers competitive compensation and comprehensive benefits. We are an equal opportunity employer committed to diversity in the workplace.

Qualified candidate should forward resume and cover letter including salary expectations to jobsca@fpe-cir.com or drop off a resume in person at 291 Griffith Road, Stratford, Monday through Friday, 8am to 5pm.